

SCHEF

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

Article I - Name

The name of this organization shall be Slidell Christian Home Educators Fellowship, hereafter, referred to as SCHEF, a not for profit organization.

Article II - Definition

SCHEF is a Christian organization, the members of which are like-minded Christian home educating families dedicated to observing the Biblical commands of Deuteronomy 6:4-10, Proverbs 22:6, and Ephesians 6:4. SCHEF is not a church nor is this organization meant to replace the ministry of the local church to the home education family.

Article III - Purpose

SCHEF is organized exclusively for the purpose of providing service and support to Christian home education families including but not limited to the following ways:

1. By aiding in the establishment and growth of Christian home education families in our community.
2. By providing information regarding the political and legal climate of home education in Louisiana and in our nation in order to protect the future freedoms of home education.
3. By promoting the advantages of home education over alternative forms of education outside the home.
4. By promoting sound, high-quality home education programs by parents or legal guardians for the purpose of developing Christ-like character, and which will satisfy the spiritual, intellectual, physical and emotional growth needs of their children.
5. By reviewing and disseminating home education materials and information considered vital to home educators, thus serving as a resource to parents desiring to educate their children in the home.
6. By publishing a regular newsletter.

7. By planning and conducting activities, seminars, forums, workshops and other educational opportunities designed to provide information and training that will help parents and others involved with or interested in home education.
8. By implementing whatever other programs or services in the future as may be deemed necessary by the membership of this organization.

Article IV - Statement Of Faith

Section 1: Preface

Our Statement of Faith includes only those truths upon which all true Christians agree. It concerns the Person and Work of Jesus Christ (the Gospel) as revealed in Scripture. It is the faith once delivered to the saints (Jude 3, Eph. 4:5) which distinguishes believers from non-believers. There are many other precious truths taught in the Bible over which godly men have differed in understanding. Therefore, this is not a statement of all that is important to believe, but of all that is essential to believe for Christian fellowship and unity. (Rom. 15:7)

Section 2: Statement

We believe:

1. The Bible to be the inspired, infallible, divinely preserved Word of God, the supreme and final authority for all faith and life.
2. That there is one living and true God; an infinite, intelligent Spirit, perfect in all His attributes, one in essence but eternally subsistent in three Persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.
3. In the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, His virgin birth, His sinless life, His miracles, His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood on the cross, His bodily resurrection, His ascension, and His imminent bodily return in power and glory.
4. That man was created in the image of God, but fell into sin and is therefore lost, and only those who put their faith in Jesus Christ alone, not trusting in any personal works whatsoever, can be saved.
5. That salvation is the free gift of God brought to the sinner by grace and received by personal faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, Whose substitutionary death on the cross paid the penalty for man's sin.
6. That the ministry of the Holy Spirit is to convict mankind, indwell, guide, instruct and empower the believer for godly living and service.

Article V - Statement On Family And Education

Section 1: Family

We believe that the family is the basic governmental, social, and spiritual unit created by God. In it, the child is to be trained in self-government, social relationships, and the development of a personal relationship to the Creator and Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, according to John 3:5 and 16, Ephesians 6:1 and Colossians 3:20.

We understand 'family' to mean a male and female parent, legally married, with one or more children (Genesis 1:26-28), inclusive of single parent families.

We reject homosexual marriages or homosexual orientation because it is contrary to Scripture and the intentions of God in creation (Romans 1:18-32), and we believe that such relationships are destructive to children and the very idea of family. Further, we reject transitory, co-habitational relationships as being equally in violation of God's laws and incapable of providing the long-term nurture and instruction needed by children and commanded by God (Proverbs 1:8 and 9, 2:1-11; Colossians 3:21 and Ephesians 6:4). In view of this, no homosexual or merely cohabiting "parents" are eligible for membership.

Section 2: Education

We believe that the ultimate responsibility for the education of children belongs to parents (Deuteronomy 4:9, 6:1-25, and 4:1-4). Thus, we believe this is an inalienable right given by God which no government entity can deny, destroy, or alter. Parents may allow another to teach some of the cognitive information that children need to know, but all education must be under the ultimate control and supervision of the parents.

We believe that all education is religious in nature since one's view of the world and life is inevitably involved in teaching (Proverbs 2:1-8; 3:1-2; 6:20-23; 9:10 and Matthew 28:18-20). Every discipline of knowledge, whether it be a subject such as mathematics, science, or history will have as its final reference point a theistic or, in the alternative, a humanistic view of reality (Colossians 1:15-20 and 2:8-15), and there is no neutral academic discipline. We believe that the religions of secular Humanism and Christianity are mutually exclusive.
